

RED LILIES

SIZE MEDIUM FR/UNF PRICE*
8X11" Watercolor Conservation Framed $75.00

Artists Comments: These flowers graced my garden at one time.

STREET TREE
ST. PETERSBURG, RUSSIA

8X12" Watercolor Conservation Framed $100.00

Artist Comments: This tree was seen on a walk in St. Petersburg.
The graceful form and weaving branches produced a delightful pattern. I took a picture of the tree and reproduced it without the buildings that originally crowded around it.

VIRGINIA B&B

8X11" Mixed Media Conservation Framed $50.00
W/C and Pen

Artist Comments: On a trip to Charlettsville, Virginia we rented a very comfortable, attractive and artistically decorated house surrounded by well tended shrubbery. This is the front door leading into a comfortable sun room.

SUNSET IN MONTEPULCIANO

16X20" Acrylic Framed $125.00

Artist Comments: The vivid coloration comes partly from acrylic paint and partly from the underlying gold, silver and copper leaf. This painting changes as the ambient light strikes the painting much as the sky changed as the sun set.

PRACTICE MAKES PEPPERS

9X12" Watercolor Conservation Framed $100.00

Artist Comments: In painting this fun piece I devoted a part of my paper to a practice area to work on the technique. I had planned to cut off the practice area but then changed my mind and included it in the finished painting.

SEVEN WINES RESTAURANT

10X13" Watercolor Conservation Framed $175.00

Artist Comments: This sign was displayed on a restaurant in Pienza, Italy. We had seen it on a previous trip and liked it so I sketched it and made it another memory.

AMALFI LEMON

9X12" Watercolor Conservation Framed $85.00

Artist Comments: On the way to the Sorrento Peninsula in Italy we stopped at a small grocery for essential supplies to start our week. The owner of the store in the gracious Italian style helped us gather our purchases. He was pleased with our interchange and purchases and after our payment he gave us several quite large lemons that retained their original branches. I immediately sketched this one while the leaves were fresh and produced this watercolor.

CHILEAN CHURCH
PUNTA ARENAS

12X16" Watercolor Conservation Framed $125.00

Artist Comments: In Punta Arenas, Chile, in the southernmost Diocese of the entire Roman Catholic Church is the Cathedral of El Sagrado Corazon, Sacred Heart. Punta Arenas is a jumping off place for Antarctic expeditions and was previously named after Magellan. This town was previously a penal colony and the former church was burned in a mutiny. This imposing, beautiful structure inspired this bell tower painting.

LE CRU FLEURIE

9X9 Watercolor Conservation Framed $90.00

Artist Comments: While staying in the wine growing countryside around Fleurie, France we frequently saw a delightful sign advertising the wine of the area. It was so appealing that I made a watercolor capturing some of the nature of the sign.

GRAPE LEAF TABLE MAT

16 1/2" Acrylic Unframed $25.00
On Marine Cloth

Artist Comments: This table mat can be used as a center decorative piece for a table or hutch. They also work very well as a place mat. We have produced them to match or compliment the pattern in the plates for a table setting.

GOLDEN PEAR

11X14 Acrylic Framed $85.00

Artist Comments: This pear was produced on a mat that was texture and then covered with gold leaf. Thin washes of acrylic was applied allowing the underlying gold and base red to show through. The picture captures and reflects light causing it to change tone in differing light direction and intensities.
